*As of 2013/2014, in ward level published data, the categories drug offences, other offences and fraud and forgery are not included, as these are not victim-based crimes.

Please note that as of 2013/2014 some of the sub-categories have also been changed in the counting rules.

Violence Against the Person

No longer includes possession of weapons or public order offences (these are now new sub-categories in crimes against society)

Now includes kidnap (previously in the 'other offences' category)

Theft offences

No longer includes handling stolen goods or profiting from proceeds of crime (now in crimes against society).

Theft offences now includes making off without payment (previous in Fraud and forgery) and now includes blackmail (previously 'other offences' category)

Sexual offences

No longer includes exploitation or soliciting for prostitution (now in crimes against society).

Fraud and forgery

No longer exists, fraud offences are dealt with by NFIB (National Fraud Investigation Bureau) and forgery offences are now included in crimes against society.
