

Preamble

- (A) This Code of Conduct has been adopted by Medway Council to support its duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by Members of the Council as required by the Localism Act 2011. It sets out general obligations about the standards of conduct expected of members and co-opted members of the authority, together with provisions about registering and declaring interests. A flow chart summarising the rules on participation at meetings can be found at Appendix 2.
- (B) The Code is based on the Seven Principles of Public Life under section 28(1) of the Localism Act 2011, which are set out below. This Preamble and the Seven Principles of Public Life do not form part of the Code, but you should have regard to them as they will help you to comply with the Code.
- (C) If you need guidance on any matter under the Code, you should seek it from the Monitoring Officer or your own legal adviser – but it is entirely your responsibility to comply with the provisions of this Code.
- (D) Except in the case of non-voting co-opted members, in accordance with section 34 of the Localism Act 2011, where you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest it is a criminal offence if, without reasonable excuse, you:
- (i) Fail to notify the Authority's Monitoring Officer of the interest before the end of 28 days beginning with the day on which you became a member.
 - (ii) Fail to disclose the interest at Meetings where the interest is not entered in the Authority's register.
 - (iii) Fail to notify the Authority's Monitoring Officer of the interest before the end of 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure at a meeting, if the interest is not entered in the Authority's register and is not the subject of a pending notification.
 - (iv) Take part in discussion or votes, or further discussions or votes, at Meetings on matters in which you have the interest which are being considered at the meeting.
 - (v) Fail to notify the Authority's Monitoring Officer of the interest before the end of 28 days beginning with the date when you become aware that you have such an interest in a matter to be dealt with, or being dealt with, by you acting alone in the course of discharging a function of the Authority.
 - (vi) Take any step in relation to a matter being dealt with by you acting alone in the course of discharging a function of the Authority, except a step for the purpose of enabling the matter to be dealt with otherwise than by you.
 - (vii) Knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information in any of the above disclosures or notifications.
- (E) Any written allegation received by the Authority that you have failed to comply with the Code will be dealt with under the arrangements adopted by the Authority for such purposes. Except in relation to the matters referred to in paragraph (D) above which will give rise to a criminal offence, if it is found that you have failed to comply with the Code, the Authority may have regard to this failure in deciding whether to take action and, if so, what action to take in relation to you.

Seven Principles of Public Life

You should have regard to the following principles:

Selflessness	Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.
Integrity	Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.
Objectivity	Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
Accountability	Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.
Openness	Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.
Honesty	Holders of public office should be truthful.
Leadership	Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

Medway Council Member Code of Conduct

1. Scope

You are an elected Member or a co-opted Member of Medway Council.

You must comply with this Code whenever you act in your capacity as a Member or Co-opted Member of the Authority.

Where you act as the Council's representative:

- a) On another local authority body, you must comply with that body's code of conduct.
- b) On any other body, you must comply with this Code, except to the extent that it conflicts with any lawful obligation which that body is subject to.

Non-voting co-opted Members of Medway Council must also comply with the provisions of this Code

2. General Conduct

2.1 You must ~~not~~:

- i) not conduct yourself in a manner which could reasonably be regarded as bringing the Council or your position into disrepute.
- ii) ~~act in a bullying manner~~ not bully or harass any person (including specifically any Council employee).
- iii) ~~intimidate or attempt to intimidate any person who is or is likely to be a complainant, a witness or be dealing with an investigation or proceedings in relation to an allegation that a member (including yourself) has failed to comply with this code of conduct~~ not intimidate or improperly influence, or attempt to intimidate or improperly influence, any person who is or is likely to be involved in any complaint about any alleged breach of this code of conduct.
- iv) not do anything which compromises or is likely to compromise the impartiality of those who work for the Council or on its behalf.
- v) comply with any formal standards investigation and take any action required by the Councillor Conduct Committee, following consideration of a complaint and you must do so within timescales stipulated by the Committee.

(Note: bullying may be characterised as: offensive, intimidating, malicious or insulting behaviour; or an abuse or misuse of power in a way that intends to undermine, humiliate, criticise unfairly or injure someone. Harassment may be characterised as unwanted conduct which has the purpose or effect of violating an individual's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for an individual.)

Examples of bullying and harassment behaviour include:

- Spreading malicious rumours, or insulting someone by word or behaviour
- Copying memos that are critical about someone to others who do not need to know
- Ridiculing or demeaning someone – picking on them or setting them up to fail
- Exclusion or victimisation
- Unfair treatment
- Overbearing supervision or other misuse of power or position
- Unwelcome sexual advances – touching, standing too close, display of offensive materials, asking for sexual favours, making decisions on the basis of sexual advances being accepted or rejected
- Making threats or comments about job security without foundation
- Deliberately undermining a competent worker by overloading and constant criticism
- Preventing individuals progressing by intentionally blocking promotion or training opportunities.

3. Disclosing and Accessing Information

- 3.1 You must not disclose information given to you in confidence, or information which you believe or ought reasonably to know is confidential, except where:
- (a) you have the consent of a person authorised to give it; or
 - (b) you are required by law to disclose the information; or
 - (c) you disclose the information to a third party to obtain legal advice, provided that the third party agrees not to disclose the information to any other person; or
 - (d) you disclose the information reasonably, in the public interest, in good faith and in compliance with the requirements of the Council.
- 3.2 You must not prevent another person from gaining access to information which that person is legally entitled to.

4. Using the Council's Resources

- 4.1 You must, when using or authorising the use by others of the resources of the authority, ensure that such resources are not used improperly for political purposes (including party political purposes) and you must have regard to any applicable Local Authority Code of Publicity made under the Local Government Act 1986. You should have regard to the guidance issued by the Councillor Conduct Committee on the use of council resources.

5. Making Decisions

- 5.1 You are accountable for your decisions to the public and you must co-operate with whatever scrutiny is appropriate to your office.
- 5.2 You must be as open as possible about your decisions and actions and the decisions and actions of your authority and should be prepared to give reasons for those decisions and actions.

6. Acting in the Public Interest

- 6.1 You must act solely in the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person or act to gain financial or other material benefits for yourself, your family, a friend or close associate.

- 6.2 You must not place yourself under a financial or other obligation to individuals or organisations that might seek to influence you inappropriately in the performance of your official duties. In all decision making you should carefully consider whether your impartiality has been compromised as a consequence of being lobbied.
- 6.3 When carrying out your public duties you must make all choices, such as making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits, on merit.

7. Social Media

- 7.1 You must not publish on social media material that a reasonable person would consider offensive or abusive.
- 7.2 You should be aware that members of the public may perceive you to be acting as a Councillor or co-opted Member even when you are acting in your personal capacity. This includes everything you publish on social media. It is your responsibility to make it clear in any posts/tweets, etc. whether you are acting in your personal capacity or as a Councillor or co-opted Member.

INTERESTS

8. Disclosable Pecuniary Interests (“DPis”)

- 8.1 “DPI” means those disclosable pecuniary interests of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State (as amended from time to time) as set out in Schedule One to this Code.
- 8.2 You will have a DPI in a matter being considered at a Council meeting where your DPI is closely aligned to the business of the Council agenda item and where the interest is:
- (a) your interest, or
 - (b) an interest of your spouse or civil partner, a person with whom you are living as husband and wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you were civil partners and provided you are aware that the other person has the interest.

9. Registering Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

- 9.1 You must give written notice to the Council’s Monitoring Officer of any DPI within 28 days of taking office as a member or co-opted member and within 28 days from when you become aware of any new DPI or any change to one already registered.
- 9.2 Following any disclosure at a meeting of a DPI which is not entered on Medway Council’s register of interests or the subject of pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of the DPI within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.
- 9.3 Where you are discharging a function of Medway Council (acting alone) and a DPI has not been entered onto Medway Council’s register of interests and is not the subject of a pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of the DPI within 28 days of becoming aware that you have a DPI in any matter to be dealt with, or being dealt with, in discharging that function.

10. Disclosing Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

- 10.1 If you are present at a meeting and you know you have a DPI in any matter to be considered, you must disclose the existence and nature of the DPI at the start of the meeting, or when the interest becomes apparent, even if the DPI has already been registered.
- 10.2 If you have a sensitive interest, you need not disclose the nature of your interest but merely the fact that you have a DPI in the matter.

11. Participation in Meetings or Decision Making when you have a DPI

- 11.1 Unless a dispensation has been granted, if you are present at a meeting and you have a DPI in a matter to be considered you must:
- a) not take part in any discussions of the matter.
 - b) not take part in any vote on the matter.
 - c) leave the meeting room (including the public gallery).

11.2 Where you are discharging a function of the authority (acting alone) and you have a DPI in any matter to be dealt with or being dealt with by you in the course of discharging that function you must not take any steps or further steps, in relation to the matter (except for the purpose of enabling the matter to be dealt with by someone else).

12. Other Significant Interests (OSIs)

12.1 You will have an OSI in a matter being considered at a Council meeting where your interest is closely aligned to the business of the Council agenda item and where the business affects the financial position or well being of the following to a greater extent than most inhabitants of the area affected by the decision:

- i) you;
- ii) a member of your family or friends or any person with whom you have a close association;
- iii) any person or body from whom you have accepted or received any gifts or hospitality as specified in Schedule Two;
- iv) any outside body or group specified in Schedule Two of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management (as relevant).

And where a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably think that your interest is so significant that it would be likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest.

13. Participation in Meetings or Decision Making when you have an Other Significant Interest (OSI)

13.1 Unless a dispensation has been granted, if you are present at a meeting and you have an OSI as defined in paragraph 12 in a matter you must disclose the existence and nature of the interest at the start of the meeting, or when the interest becomes apparent.

13.2 If you have a sensitive interest, you need not disclose the nature of your interest but merely the fact that you have an OSI in the matter.

13.3 You must:

- a) not take part in any discussion of the matter
- b) not take part in any vote on the matter
- c) leave the meeting room (including the public gallery).

13.4 Where you are discharging a function of the authority (acting alone) and you have an OSI in any matter to be dealt with or being dealt with by you in the course of discharging that function you must not take any steps or further steps, in relation to the matter (except for the purpose of enabling the matter to be dealt with by someone else).

14. Dispensations

- 14.1 Where you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or other significant interest you may still be able to participate and/or vote at a meeting if you have obtained a dispensation from the Councillor Conduct Committee. A dispensation request form is attached to the Code (Appendix 1).
- 14.2 There are 5 circumstances in respect of which a dispensation may be granted, namely:
- (a) that so many members of the decision-making body have disclosable pecuniary interests or OSIs in a matter that it would impede the transaction of the business;
 - (b) that, without the dispensation, the representation of different political groups on the body transacting the business would be so upset as to alter the outcome of any vote on the matter;
 - (c) that the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in Medway;
 - (d) that without a dispensation, no member of the Cabinet would be able to participate in this matter, or
 - (e) that it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

15. Registration of Non Pecuniary Interests and Gifts and Hospitality

- 15.1 The Council has decided that you must register certain non-pecuniary interests as defined in Schedule Two to this Code. It is only your interests which have to be registered and not those of your spouse or civil partner. You must also register any gifts or hospitality in accordance with paragraph 16.2 of the Code.
- 15.2 You must give written notice to the Council's Monitoring Officer of any non-pecuniary interest or any gifts or hospitality which the Code requires you to register within 28 days of taking office as a member or co-opted member and within 28 days from when you become aware of any new interest or receive any new gifts or hospitality or become aware of any change to anything already registered.
- 15.3 Where you are discharging a function of Medway Council (acting alone) and any non-pecuniary interest or gifts or hospitality which the Code requires you to register have not been entered onto Medway Council's register and are not the subject of a pending notification, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest or the gift or hospitality within 28 days of becoming aware of the interest or from receiving any gift or hospitality in any matter to be dealt with, or being dealt with, in discharging that function.

16. Gifts and Hospitality

- 16.1 From time to time Members may be offered gifts and hospitality.

- 16.2 You must, before the end of 28 days beginning with the day of receipt/acceptance, notify the Monitoring Officer of any gift, benefit or hospitality with an estimated value of £100 or more, or a series of gifts, benefits and hospitality from the same or an associated source, with an estimated cumulative value of £100 or more, which are received and accepted by you (in any one calendar year). You must also register the source of the gift, benefit or hospitality.

Interpretation

In this Code:

“Authority” means the Medway Council.

“Close association” means someone with whom you are in regular or irregular contact over a period of time, who is more than an acquaintance, and is someone whom a reasonable member of the public might think you were prepared to favour or disadvantage when discussing a matter that affects them.

“Code” means this Code of Conduct.

“Co-opted Member” means a person who is not an elected member of the Authority but who is a voting or non-voting member of:

- (a) any committee or sub-committee of the Authority, or
- (b) And represents the Authority on, any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the Authority.

“Disclosable Pecuniary Interest” means those interests of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State (as amended from time to time) as set out in Schedule One to the Code and where either it is:

- (a) your interest or
- (b) an interest of your spouse or civil partner, a person with whom you are living as husband and wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you were civil partners and provided you are aware that the other person has the interest.

“Meeting” means any meeting of:

- (a) the Authority;
- (b) the executive of the Authority;
- (c) any of the Authority's or its executive's committees, sub-committees, joint committees and/or joint sub-committees.

“Member” means a person who is an elected member of the Authority and includes voting and non-voting Co-opted Members.

“Non-pecuniary interests” means those interests as set out in Schedule Two which the Code requires a Member to register.

“Other Significant Interest” means where your interest is closely aligned to the business of the Council agenda item and where the business affects the financial position or well being of the following to a greater extent than most inhabitants of the area affected by the decision:

- v) you;
- vi) a member of your family or friends or any person with whom you have a close association;

- vii) any person or body from whom you have accepted or received any gifts or hospitality as specified in Schedule Two;
- viii) any outside body or group specified in Schedule Two of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management (as relevant).

And where a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably think that your interest is so significant that it would be likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest.

“Register of Members’ Interests” means the Authority's register of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests established and maintained by the Monitoring Officer under section 29 of the Localism Act 2011 and the register of specified non-pecuniary interests and gifts and hospitality under this Code.

“Sensitive Interest” means information, the details of which, if disclosed, could lead to you or a person connected with you being subject to violence or intimidation.
