Letter of Support.

Hello Sir/Madam

I live [redacted] with my wife and 2 children, we have lived here before Lounge 44 was opened and never had any problem with Lounge 44 and I will always support Lounge 44 and its business. I enjoy going there to eat, hang out with my mates and it's the only Afro-Caribbean restaurant that opens late in Medway where you can meet and network and have a good time and listen to good music.

I have no noise issues, the noise from the premises doesn't affect me or my family, we don't hear it from our flat and we live directly above it. I have never seen any fights like other places down the road and their patrons are all matured people. It understandable that some neighbours might have their issues, but nevertheless I have never witnessed these allegations as someone that lives [redacted] [redacted] and I'm sending my support that Lounge 44 should keep its licence.

Kings regards

Fred. N

Hello,

My name is Tia and I live [redacted] High Street, with my Husband and two Children. I'm do not know where this issues of public nuisance complaints comes from about Lounge 44 [redacted] and never had any noise issues or any issue with the patrons, even some neighbours I know do not! More so, the owner always comes almost every weekend to check on us and ask if the noise can be heard in our flat and we keep telling him that we cannot hear the noise from our flat, but he always asks us to please let him in to check. He always appeals to us his neighbours to inform him if we have any issues about Lounge 44 and since it opened I have never witnessed any public nuisance from its customers, no fights, no trashing of our frontage, nothing to warranty this review in my opinion.

This is our only local black premise that opens late night and it's wrong to reduce its licence for reasons I believe are not general.

My support Against the Review by Medway council on Lounge 44(Jollof Lounge Late Night Licence)

Attn: Sir/ Madam

I wish to lend my support to Lounge 44 ( Jollof Lounge ) of 44 High street, ME4 4DS, Chatham, Kent against the review to reduce it's trading hours by Medway and Gravesend Council because this is a responsible business that supports diversity in the community and it will greatly affect the business if this review is allowed to hold.
